
Title: Book I: The Lie

Author: Garlan Trynthlas

A great lie has been spread across our world!
This lie is obvious to anyone with the eyes to see what is occurring all around them! The lie is that the system of ethics and virtues set forth years and years ago is something that protects and nurtures the growth of a productive society.

To this I say, show me your great culture, show me your great society, show me your peace and freedom from fear! It cannot be done.

The world is in turmoil, constant strife, rampant with crime unpunished and every year another group realizes that they cannot rely on the once-mighty Britain to protect them, let alone maintain order.

What then, you ask, is the solution? Patience, for it will be shown. For now I will answer the question, "What is the cause?"

The cause is simple - the Virtues espoused and set down by British are flawed and misguided.

The three principles:
Truth, Love, Courage.
The eight virtues:
Compassion, Honesty,
Honor, Humility, Justice, Sacrifice, Spirituality,

Valor.

A book shall be written for each, and within will be revealed the flaws, the lies, and the truth that will light the way towards a new hope and a new order.

Read on, friend, for the future is bright.
